

At the end of the day, be sure to brush your teeth and floss them before you go to bed. When you get up in the morning, brush them again to give your mouth a healthy start for the day.

