

It's Time to Write Your Book!

With Maria Luchsinger

Writing a book is an exciting journey!

If you want a business book done quick, there are formulas to help get it done fast and we can do that.

On the other hand, you might want a different twist on your subject,

I specialize in helping you write your book the way you want it to be done.

The Publishing Process Overview

1. Writing
2. Editing
3. Book Design – Interior and Cover
4. Metadata – Includes Title, Description, etc.
5. Distribution - Selling channels
6. Marketing

I will help guide you through the entire process from writing to launch.

I have resources to help us in various stages so we can produce the best book for you.

We will have an initial conference which will include the topics of:

Why you want to write your book,
Who your target audience is
What type of launch will be best for you.

Companies charge thousands of dollars for them to help you publish your book.

I have spent thousands of dollars getting my books out into the world.

My goal is to help you create the book you want and be able to create more in the future.

I am excited to be the Guide on your book adventure.

We will work together for up to 6 months.

We will have book writing check-ins every two weeks while simultaneously planning your launch at the same time.

You can email or message me in between if you have questions.

Because I know you will have other costs for editing, book cover design, and promotion, I am excited to offer my expertise to you for the investment of

$997

There is also a payment plan available for 6 payments of $180.

Writing your book is an important part of your creative journey and I would love to share it with you!

Let's have fun!
Let's talk about your book project.
